

is probably not for you, however, if you want to explore by land and by sea during your trip, want the flexibility to make it up as you go along, and are a proficient paddler then this could work.

Roope Roine has become 'Moln'

Though the goals are the same; a stimulating selection of sea kayak expeditions to fascinating locations, Roope Roine has become 'Moln'. With new destinations for 2009 include Greenland and Menorca together with old favourites like Arctic Norway and the Finish archipelago, Moln now offer the largest selection of kayaking trips in Europe.
